Alessio de Longis, CFA®

Alessio de Longis is Head of Investments and Senior Portfolio Manager for the Invesco Solutions team, which develops and manages asset allocation strategies and comprehensive portfolio solutions across institutional and private client channels. In this role, he leads portfolio management responsibilities and the investment process for asset allocation and manager selection across the platform, which leverages Invesco's fundamental, systematic, and alternative strategies to deliver precise, tailored outcomes to unique investor needs. Mr. de Longis led the group's global tactical asset allocation and factor rotation capabilities, focusing on the development, implementation, and management of macro regime-based strategies across asset classes.

Mr. de Longis joined Invesco in 2019 when the firm combined with OppenheimerFunds, where he was team leader and senior portfolio manager of the global multi-asset team. Prior to that, he was a member of the global debt team, where he served as currency portfolio manager and global macro analyst. Mr. de Longis is a published author in the field of macro-based systematic tactical asset allocation, factor investing, and currency overlay strategies. He is regularly featured across financial media outlets.

Mr. de Longis earned a BA degree and an MA in economics from the University of Rome Tor Vergata, as well as an MSc in financial economics and econometrics from the University of Essex. He is a Chartered Financial Analyst® (CFA) charterholder.
